SPECIAL NOTES REGARDING ITINERARY

- 1. Rules during the trip – If there is any question whether you will get in trouble for doing something...DO NOT DO IT!!!
- 2. Meals – Students should bring around $25 for food for the two stops (on the way to and from Syracuse) the buses will make and snacks at the hotel.
The following meals are provided:
Snack Saturday Night
Breakfast Sunday Morning
Dinner Sunday Evening (Every student will be given $20 to buy food at Dome)
Breakfast Monday Morning
- 3. Hotel Check In – If students upon entering their rooms see any damage, chaperones should be notified immediately. Students occupying the room will be charged for any damage found that is not immediately reported.
- 4. Sunday Morning at the Dome – THERE ARE STRICT RULES WE MUST FOLLOW!!! It is VERY important that we follow the schedule accurately. Any time delays can result in a penalty. Please refer to the Detailed Itinerary page.
- 5. Punctuality – It is very important you are on time for EVERYTHING. NYSFBC has extremely strict rules. We cannot afford to be penalized for someone being late.
- 6. Telephone Calls - You will be charged for any calls made from your hotel room. DO NOT CALL OTHER ROOMS! There are non-band hotel guests. Please use your cell phones if necessary.
- 7. Behavior/Respect – You are a member of the HBDMB. That title carries a very big responsibility. You must ALWAYS present yourself in a PROFESSIONAL, RESPONSIBLE, and RESPECTFUL manner.
- 8. Cell Phone Emergency Numbers – These numbers are for EMERGENCIES ONLY and should not be used for any other reason.

9. Behavior at the Hotel – Be aware of other guests in the hotel. Do not be loud or behave in a fashion that will disturb others. Hanging out of windows will result in suspension from performance.

YOU MAY NOT ENTER ROOMS OF THE OPPOSITE GENDER FOR ANY REASON.

10. Behavior on the buses & at the Embassy Suites – See the CODE OF CONDUCT.

11. If you are sick/injured, tell us. See a staff member or a chaperone immediately. (If a student has a medical emergency, they must be transported to the local hospital by ambulance.)

12. Other things to consider:

- o Remember...schedules often change without notice. We need constant cooperation.
- o Please always remain professional and be patient.
- o You have all worked very hard, please don't do anything that may jeopardize yourself, or the HBDMB.
- o Enjoy yourself and have fun!

HUNTINGTON UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT

P.O. Box 1500

Huntington, NY

CODE OF CONDUCT

The following Code of Conduct has been formulated by the Huntington Union Free School District to serve as a guide as to what is expected from each group member in the way of general conduct while on an overnight trip.

1. All members of the group shall display mature behavior, good citizenship, and high moral character at all times. Furthermore, all members are expected to conduct themselves in a responsible manner, to show careful regard for their own safety as well as that of others, and to cooperate in every way with adults in charge of the trip.
2. Members of the group shall not use, possess, sell or be in a room where there are illegal drugs of any kind, or where there are alcoholic beverages in any form. Students found in possession or having used such products will be sent home immediately, at their parents'/guardians' expense.
3. Smoking will not be permitted while a student is officially representing the Huntington School District.
4. No student will be permitted to board the bus without having completed and turned in the signed forms mentioned on the Information Sheet.
5. Group members shall keep their chaperones informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times. No one will be permitted to leave the group. Curfews will be established by the chaperones and enforced.
6. Students should check their room for any damage prior to occupancy and should report any damages to a chaperone immediately. Any damage found after occupancy will be billed to the students assigned to that room.
7. No group member shall violate any local laws, or if applicable, any laws of another country.
8. Parents/guardians will be responsible for any damage and/or theft caused by their child.
9. A chaperone, for any reason of safety and welfare, may enter a student's room.
10. Any group member violating or ignoring any of the conduct rules may be sent home immediately at his/her or their parents'/guardians' expense. As this is an official Board of Education approved function, the Principal may take disciplinary action after arriving home.

11. Group members shall respect and abide by the authority delegated to the chaperones. The chaperones are designated as responsible for enforcing the Code of Conduct.

HBDMB RULES AND CONSEQUENCES

It is imperative this trip runs smoothly. The policies in your Huntington High School Code of Conduct as well as the policies set in your Huntington High School Blue Devil Handbook are always in effect.
